"America May Save World," Declares Gibbs

Distinguished English Publicist Thinks We Missed First Great Chance.

By LOUIS ASHLEY.

"It is for America to decide whether the civilization of Europe, the supremacy of the white race in this world of ours, is to survive or perish. America may play the Kaiser's game, or it may throw its tremendous influence on the side of peace and conserve to our grandchildren and their grandchildren the arts and refinements of the civilization we have known. Of the decisions I have no doubt. America is not a nation of wreckers, destroyers, but of builders and as builders the security and safety of the world is in good hands."

So declared Sir Philip Gibbs, the distinguished English publicist yesterday afternoon before a cultured, appreciative audience at Doli's. He was lecturing on "What America Means to the World."

Showing a wealth of information gathered first hand in eighteen months of traveling about through the countries devastated by warfare, the speaker drew small, but complete, pictures of a dying Europe, of a Europe filled with nations armed to the teeth, suspicious of each other, on the verge of collapse, a prey to horrible dreams.

HAD A GREAT CHANCE.

"At the close of the great war," said Mr. Gibbs, "all the embattled peoples on both sides of the line were ready for the great message. They were literally exhausted materially, but their hearts were filled to overflowing with emotion. They were ready for America's message. America had its great chance—and missed."

"But I am an optimist, not a pessimist. I believe that America still has its chance. It may not be as simple as it was eighteen months ago to work the miracle. Europeans have lost their thrill of emotion. They have sunk back, some we might say to despair. But the chance is still there for America."

The speaker told of his lack of faith in the League of Nations when he went to Geneva, how he watched the gathering of savants at work, how the old leaders were hopelessly out of place facing the problems of today, and how the administrative side of the organization finally won his support of the project. Today he admitted that there is hope of world peace, of a continuation of our modern civilization, only through the kind of world we need, of which it is vitally necessary that America be one.

CALLS IT FOOLISH.

Mr. Gibbs described present-day conditions in Great Britain, saying that while dark and foreboding, they are far from hopeless.

"I know my own people," he said. "They are inclined by nature to take the middle course. I do not believe

DOCTOR'S THRILLING STRUGGLE WITH DEATH WAS

Fierce Battle with Grim Spectre Brought Health to Dr. H. V. Reese and a Message of Hope to Millions of Sufferers

AT SEVENTY-FOUR HE WEIGHS FORTY POUNDS MORE THAN AT FIFTY

While a Practising physician in 1898 Dr. Reese Was Unable To Eat and Drink and Had To Wash Out His Stomach Three Times Daily—Decided To Devote Remainder of Life To Relieve His Own Condition Which He Did With R-11 and Now Is Hale and Hearty.

Although his life was despaired of twenty-two years ago by some of the country's foremost authorities on stomach troubles, of which he had been a sufferer for more than ten years, Dr. H. V. Reese today, at seventy-four years of age, weighs forty pounds more than he has ever weighed, is hale and hearty and possesses more vigor than most men of fifty.

It was in 1898 that Dr. Reese, then a practicing physician of Huntington, W. Va., was told there was no hope for his recovery. His condition at that time was so critical that it was impossible for him to retain either food or drink in his stomach, and when, after going as long as possible without any nourishment, he would finally eat or drink something he would have to wash out his stomach before he had hardly swallowed a second mouthful. In fact, Dr. Reese's condition finally required the washing out of his stomach two and three times daily. In addition to stomach trouble Dr. Reese suffered from severe liver and kidney troubles, which generally accompany stomach ailments.

After he had sought relief through every known agency of the medical profession and had spent the major portion of his earnings for many years previous, Dr. Reese finally determined to spend his remaining days in experimenting upon himself in an endeavor to discover a remedy for stomach, liver and kidney troubles. After months of heart-breaking failures and with his condition growing worse, Dr. Reese finally hit upon the formula which now is known as The Reese Formula R-11, that completely restored his health.

Dr. Reese has been persuaded for years by friends and users of The Reese Formula R-11 to put his remedy on the market, already compounded at a price within the reach of everyone. This he has done. This great medicine is not a so-called patent medicine, but the ingredients, one or more of which are prescribed by every physician daily.

Anyone suffering from indigestion, nervousness, rheumatism, backache, lumbago, sour stomach, heartburn, urinary, kidney or liver troubles of any kind will do well to get a bottle today.

RHEUMATISM SO BAD MRS. BLAIR COUL NOT MOVE HANDS OR FEET

Treatment of Several Doctors Was Without Result, but After Taking The Reese Formula R-11, Woman Now Can Do Her Own Housework.

Mrs. E. T. Blair, of Kitts Hill, Ohio, suffered so severely from rheumatism that at times she could not move her hands or feet. She began taking Reese Formula R-11, with such remarkable results that she can now do her own housework.

In speaking of her case, Mrs. Blair said: "I had severe pains in the back, arms, feet and limbs. Several doctors

Stomach Trouble Relieved by R-11 After Doctors Failed

James M. Long, of 425 North Second St., Ironton, Ohio, an employee of the Union Iron and Steel Company, has to say of The Reese Formula R-11:

"I have been doctoring for over six years for stomach trouble. Six doctors in Ironton and four in Portsmouth did not help me a bit. I have taken all sorts of remedies without results until I began taking The Reese Formula R-11. I have taken but one bottle but my stomach does not trouble me at all and I feel stronger in every respect. I am going to take another bottle although I feel that I am entirely well now. I most heartily recommend this remedy as it has, by relieving me, done something I did not deem possible."

Union Labor Leader Says None Could Be Disappointed in R-11

Secretary of Central Labor Union Declares He Was Benefited More By The Reese Formula R-11 Than By All Other Medicines and Says Sufferers Need Never Experiment When This Wonderful Remedy Can Be Had.

Sufferers of stomach, liver and kidney trouble "will never have to experiment if The Reese Formula R-11 can be procured," says W. F. Dodson, corresponding and recording secretary of the Lyndhurst Central Labor Union. Mr. Dodson says "No one can be disappointed in this wonderful remedy, which I am absolutely sure I am right in recommending to anyone and everyone." This labor leader continues:

"I had stomach and liver troubles for a number of years, and took many kinds of remedies, which, if I am not mistaken, did me very little, if any good. I had no appetite, and nothing that I ate seemed to agree with me. I at last decided to let the medicines go and throw it out when I saw an advertisement of The Reese Formula R-11. I gave this very little notice, however, as I had tried so many remedies that I had only disappointed me. One day while I was talking with Mr.

STANDS TODAY IN CLASS BY ITSELF

Physicians every day prescribe for patients suffering from troubles of the stomach, liver and kidneys, such as indigestion, nervousness, headache, backache, lumbago, urinary, liver and kidney troubles, the drugs used in The Reese Formula R-11. They are excellent drugs. But unless just the right ones are used in just the right combination and quantities, the best results cannot be obtained.

It took years of effort and study with Dr. Reese's own life at stake to perfect The Reese Formula R-11. It stands today in a class by itself. There are thousands today who have suffered for years and who now owe their health to this wonderful remedy. Get a bottle today and be convinced of its merits.
